Here's IDEA's Playbook:

CONNECTING THE DOTS

Organizing. Connecting. Showcasing. Leading. Learning.

IDEA is making the critical connections between place-based teams, regional networks, and national actors through story, dialogue, and collaborative actions grounded in shared values and relationships.

Now we're calling for all the IDEA:movers in the world to step forward and more actively join this party. It's time to stop feeling isolated. We're asking you to lean in, scooch forward, or use whatever form of agency you prefer to move more meaningfully together.

There's something big brewing and it's bigger than IDEA. But we're helping and we need your help to keep us moving.

Become an IDEA:mover and let's go connect more of them dots!

IDEA's accomplished a lot in three years and we're just getting started:

- Six place-based teams
- One national team
- the Learning Breakthrough Series
- national narrative campaigns like "A Year at Mission Hill"
- the IDEA Blog and Facebook page
- Learning and Innovation tours
- the IDEA Library
